A Message from Governor William Donald Schaefer:

Although Maryland is small in land area, it is one of the most exciting and dynamic states in the nation. We are proud of our state -- its wealth of natural resources, its thriving economy, and, most of all, its wonderful people.

The 1988-1989 Maryland Statistical Abstract includes a tremendous amount of information about our state from agriculture, to education, to population, to transportation.

Our state government will use this data to make sound decisions that will enhance the quality of life for all Maryland residents. I hope you'll find this book just as useful.

Sincerely,

William Donald Schaefer

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Maryland Statistical Abstract is published every other year by the Maryland Department of Economic and Employment Development. The 1988-89 edition was supervised by IRENE TASHLICK. DAVID HANNAN, PATRICIA FELIX and THOMAS ZUBACK provided valuable assistance in collecting, organizing and computerizing the data. JERRY A. *Figures reflect corrections to the census counts made subsequent to the release of the official figures. Revisions are not available by race.

Note: Differences between 1980 and 1970 Census counts by race seriously affect the comparability for "White" and "Other" populations. A much larger proportion of the Spanish origin population in 1980 than in 1970 reported their race as "Other". Also, in 1970, most persons who marked the "Other" category and wrote in Mexican, Venezuelan, Latino, etc. were reclassified as "White". In 1980, these persons remained in the "Other" category. (Appendix B note in Final Report PC 80-1-B22 MD).

/1 Each kind-of-business classification includes leased departmetns classified in that kind of business as if they were separate establishments. Accordingly, data for leased departments are not consolidated with kind-of-business data for main stores in which they are located. Data for 1977 adjusted for comparable treatment of leased departments between 1977 and 1982.

/2 Department stores data includes sales from catalog order desks.

/3 Includes liquor; antique and second hand; sporting goods and bicycles; jewelry; fuel and ice; florists; cigar and other retail stores not elsewhere classified.

/4 Includes mail order houses; automotive merchandising machine operators; and direct selling establishments excluding nonemployer direct sellers.

/5 Includes scrap and waste materials; jewelry, watches, diamonds and other stones, durable goods n.e.c.

/6 Includes farm supplies, tobacco and tobacco products; paints, varnishes; other nondurable goods n.e.c.

(D) Data withheld--disclosure problem. Some service industries covered in the 1977 Census were not covered for 1982 (hospitals; elementary and secondary schools; colleges; labor unions; and political organizations). When the adjustment was made to make the 1977 data comparable with the 1982 coverage, it was necessary to carry out a major suppression of data. The percent change in total receipts from 1977 to 1982 falls in the range of 105-110 percent.

* Available data only for total retail trade. Data for most establishments without payroll were obtained from the Internal Revenue Service. These data could not be published by kind-of-business as planned because many businesses were miscoded into miscellaneous categories.

1/ Each kind-of-business classification includes leased departments classified in that kind of business as if they were separate establishments. Accordingly, data for leased departments are not consolidated with kind-of-business data for main stores in which they are located. Data for 1977 adjusted for comparable treatment of leased departments between 1977 and 1982 (at the State and United States levels).

2/ Department stores data includes sales from catalog order desks.

3/ Includes liquor; antique and second hand; sporting goods and bicycles; jewelry; fuel and ice; florists; cigar and other retail stores not elsewhere classified.

4/ Includes mail order houses; automatic merchandising machine operators; and direct selling establishments excluding nonemployer direct sellers.

(D) Data withheld--disclosure problem. Some service industries covered in the 1977 Census were not covered for 1982 (hospitals; elementary and secondary schools; colleges; labor unions; and political organizations). When the adjustment was made to make the 1977 data comparable with the 1982 coverage, it was necessary to carry out a major suppression of data. The percent change in total receipts from 1977 to 1982 falls in the range of 105-110 percent

(3)Data at the State level for 1977 has been adjusted to allow for comparability with the 1982 data. For the 1982 report there has been a change in the concept of leased departments--each leased department has been treated as a separate establishment and classified according to that kind of business it conducts. In 1977 and prior Censuses, data for leased departments were consolidated with the data for stores in which they were located. THE DATA SHOWN BY SUBDIVISION HAVE NOT BEEN ADJUSTED AND ARE NOT COMPARABLE WITH THE 1982 DATA.

Note on the Poverty Level:

The poverty level is a designation used by the federal government as one means of identifying areas and persons with income levels so low that some economic hardship is likely to be present. Various levels have been determined depending on family size, number of children, and age of the family householder or unrelated individual. The poverty thresholds used in the 1980 census differ slightly from those used in the 1970 census, which took into account the same three factors as well as sex of the family householder or unrelated individual and farm-nonfarm residence. In addition, for the 1980 census the thresholds by size of family were extended from 7 or more persons to 9 or more persons. The income cutoffs are updated each year to reflect the change in the Consumer Price Index. The poverty threshold for a family of four was $7,412 in 1979. In 1986, the national threshold for a family of four was $11,203. No further data is available at State and County levels since the 1980 Census.

Note: A small number of lengthy cases can increase an average, particularly in a jurisdiction with a small caseload. For that reason, civil cases over 721 days old, criminal cases over 360 days old, and juvenile causes over 271 days old have been excluded in the above calculations. Approximately 90 to 95 percent of the cases are disposed of within those time periods.
